Increase of healthy life expectancy by studies on Indonesian and Japanese medicinal plants (Project leader: Mikio Nishizawa, M.D., Ph.D.)

Asia is suffering from disease
Increase of patients suffering from diabetes mellitus, atherosclerosis and dementia in Indonesian and Japanese elderly

Traditional Kampo drugs

To find bioactive constituents from traditional herbal drugs

To establish the basis for development of drugs and functional foods

Collaborative Herbal Research Center

University of Brawijaya, INDONESIA

Ritsumeikan University, JAPAN

Prevention and treatment for diabetes mellitus, atherosclerosis and dementia in Indonesian and Japanese elderly – Co-creation of Healthy Life –